Can we go into the villa before 4 o'clock on arrival? Change over day?

The official time for entry to your villa is 4 o'clock. If you arrive before 4 you are welcome to leave your suitcases but will need to ring and inform us of this (please note: we can not be held liable for any lost or stolen items or valuables if you decide to leave cases at the villa), you will not be able to check-in at the villa until it has been cleaned. Please remember that previous guests will still be in residence before 10am so no entry to the villa or its outside facilities will be allowed before that time. We will gladly direct you to the nearest local bar/restaurants that are just a few minuets away so you may relax with refreshments and maybe have something to eat while you wait. We will of course ring you if you can check-into the villa before 4pm, but this will be at our discretion. Change over day is Saturday we may be able to be flexible low season.

What is in a welcome pack?

Basic essentials, which are complementary on your arrival, your welcome pack usually includes tea, coffee, water, juice, milk, bread, butter, cheese, eggs, bacon, sausages, 1 bottle of white wine, 1 bottle of red wine and a pack of 6 lagers. Sometimes may be slightly different subject to availability at time of purchase. Please don't rely on the pack to feed you for days it's for convenience – and is only basic essentials to last you until the local shop opens! Arrival day is usually on a Sunday all shops are closed although most bars and restaurants are open in Comares and on the coast. Sunday is one of the busiest days for restaurants as Spanish family's get together so be sure to arrive at restaurants before 2oclock!

Can we stay in the villa later than the confirmed vacating time of 10am?

This is not possible, as the villa will need to be cleaned and prepared for the next guest.
